TUESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 13, 1864.

News of To-Day.

Hood attacked block houses near Murfreesboro, December 6th, and was repulsed with the loss of six pieces of artillery and some prisoners.

The rebels lost ten general officers in the attack on Franklin, including Generals Gowan and Gist.

Chase has taken his seat as Chief Justice.

Brazil has ordered all her ports closed against the Wachusett.

The citizens of Philadelphia have held a meeting and presented the name of J. W. Forney for a place in the Cabinet, as a candidate from Pennsylvania.

We have news of the organization of the Senate and the appointment of Chairmen of the important Committees.

Gwin has obtained through the influence of Napoleon, the position of Governor-General of Sonora, where he will be convenient to his old field of labor in California.

The Secretary of the Treasury calls the attention of Congress to the necessity of raising more revenue from ordinary sources, and suggests that the mineral lands should in some manner be made to yield a public revenue in proportion to their yearly production.

The Southern papers are filled with accounts of Sherman's movements. They are unable to locate the whereabouts of his main army and his skirmishers afford them all the excitement and occupation they stand in need of. Sherman has undoubtedly reached the coast, and no doubt will successfully accomplish all he has undertaken. Government knows where to expect him, and has prepared stores and reinforcements to await his arrival. What his success has been, and what he started to accomplish, we can never expect to know until he makes a full report of his expedition, after it is ended. In the meantime there remains little doubt that he has realized all the success his great military genius and well-earned fame would lead us to expect of him.

The gunboat Rhode Island captured the blockade-runner Vixen, that proved to be one of the best equipped and swiftest vessels afloat, though not able to run from our own steam craft.

A Sign of the Times.

The border Slave States have been agitated by the direct question of Secession or Union, and from the first have stood by the Federal compact and sent into the field their proportion of the armies raised for its preservation. Such has been their position since the very hour, when, against the popular vote and popular will of those States Mr. Lincoln was raised to the Presidency, and their conduct offers a most forcible commentary to the action and position of the Democratic opposition to the Administration in the North.

Four years since Missouri gave Lincoln scarce one vote in ten, while she lately polled a handsome majority for him. Kentucky then gave him less than one vote in a hundred, while at the late election that State was carried for McClellan by the votes of many who support the war policy of Mr. Lincoln, and the State may be counted as entirely certain to sustain the Government and to assist in crushing the rebellion. Maryland has gone for Lincoln by casting more than twenty votes for him where he received one four years since, and Delaware was lately only lost to him by a mere handful on the final count.

And still further proof of the progress of the age and the spirit of the times is afforded in the fact that Missouri and Maryland have decided to be classed in the future among the Free States, the former by a system of gradual emancipation, and the latter, by a popular vote favoring immediate abolition, which has been duly proclaimed. In Kentucky and Delaware, the ablest and purest minds of those States are agitating the necessity of abolishing slavery, and such men as Breckinridge, Holt and Reverdy Johnson, the latter politically opposed to the Administration, favor its abolition throughout the bounds of the United States.

This is called fanaticism when advocated in New England, and thrown at us as no less in Oregon; and we hail with pleasure each change from slavery to freedom in the border States, and the dawning of a public sentiment in others that presages similar action in the future; for us the area of freedom stretches southward, it insures that slavery will melt before it until the slave-bound coast that hems the Gulf of Mexico will become free soil.

This would be the natural result, were we dwelling in peaceful times; but the necessities of war have arisen to smite slavery down, and the voice of a nation couples its history with treason, and declares in the voice of millions its doom.

Armies traverse the central portions of the Confederacy. Emancipation marches where they march, and slavery melts away before them. Its fate is in the future, but seems shadowed forth to us. The hour is big with fate, and the problems of the present can only be solved by that wisest of sages—Time. The cloud has a silver lining, and one of its happiest auguries is derived from the action of the Border States.

For Washington.—Mr. James F. Gazley, one of our State Electors, arrived in town, Saturday evening, on his way to the National Capital, to convey the official vote of this State. Mr. Gazley has done good service to the Union cause by his eloquent and earnest appeals to the voters during the late canvass, and well deserves the honor of bearing the result to Washington—the more, as having been a life-long Democrat of the old Jackson school, he is a fit representative of the fact of which we are proud, that the Union cause in Oregon commands the support of the best elements of former political associations.

Albany Items.—At the city election held Monday, Dec. 5, the following persons were elected: Mayor, J. C. Powell; Recorder, Dominick Mansfield; Marshal, J. W. Cheaver; Treasurer, Simon Schlussel; Aldermen, G. H. Baker, D. Beach, J. B. Conley, John Barrows, W. F. Alexander, S. S. Markham. These gentlemen were elected with but very slight opposition.

Thomas Fenwick was recommitted to jail on a charge of robbery, preferred by a woman that he claims as his wife, but who does not appear very faithful to him.

Set on Fire.—Mr. Jas. Longmire, of Yelm Prairie, Washington Territory, [illegible] Saturday night, by fire. [illegible]

By Overland Telegraph.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO DECEMBER 8.

New York, 6th.—The charter election was held to-day. A small vote was cast. The returns indicate the election of the Tammany candidates.

Gen. Dick Taylor has been assigned to the command of the Alabama and Georgia reserves, with headquarters at Savannah.

The Macon Telegraph of Nov. 29th says Gen. Sherman's situation is growing more precarious daily. We may confidently hope for his complete overthrow and destruction.

The railroad is said to be entirely destroyed between Griswoldville and McIntyre.

Nashville, Dec. 6.—Very little of interest transpired to-day. A flag of truce came in to-day bearing a letter from Hood requesting an exchange of prisoners.

Washington, Dec. 6.—The Senate to-day confirmed the nomination of Salmon P. Chase for Chief Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court. The nominations of James Speed of Kentucky, as Attorney General, and A. W. Dennison, for Postmaster General, were sent in, but not acted upon.

Washington, Dec. 7.—A bill was introduced in the House yesterday, by Thad. Stevens, to prevent gold and silver coin and bullion from being paid or accepted for greater value than their current value, and for preventing any note or bill, issued by the United States being received for a smaller sum than thereupon specified. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means. On motion of Blaine, of Maine, the vote of reference was reconsidered to-day, and the bill laid on the table. Cole of California introduced a bill for establishing mail service between the United States and China.

Fortress Monroe, Dec. 5.—Letters give particulars of the capture of the blockade runner Vixen, by the gunboat Rhode Island. The Vixen is a new steamer, and on her first voyage. She is English built and of faultless mould, and equipped with horizontal engines. Previous to coming in contact with the Rhode Island, she had been pursued by two steamers and outran them both. During the chase the Vixen was gained upon by the Rhode Island. Her wheels turned so rapidly as to throw off the buckets and disable the machinery. The Rhode Island towed her to Fortress Monroe. The Vixen is a splendid specimen of naval architecture, 225 feet long, with two smoke stacks, two masts, and schooner-rigged. She had a crew numbering 49. Her captain is an officer in the English navy.

Letters from the Army of the Potomac say there is no news of importance. Perfect quiet prevailed along the lines at the latest dates.

The Macon, Georgia, Messenger of November 23d, says of the cavalry fight at Walnut Creek. The enemy appeared with four pieces of artillery and cavalry variously estimated at from five to eight thousand strong, commanded by Kilpatrick. An artillery fire was kept up briskly for about three hours without loss on our side. Their shooting was not creditable. During the fight Capt. Spafford, of the 10th Ohio regiment, with a few men, also had crossed the creek, made a dashing charge on our artillery and had his horse shot under him and was captured. These are about the only incidents of the second attack on our city. The injury done in the immediate vicinity was the burning of a mill and injuring a few hundred yards of the railroad. It was a very feeble demonstration, without accomplishing anything.

The Savannah Republican of November 28th, says: Gov. Brown must be resolved to drive Sherman out of Georgia by proclamations.

The Macon Telegraph of November 28th, contains three of these manifestoes from his excellency. The same paper of the same date says we noticed on the street yesterday a wagon containing exactly six sticks of pine wood, for which thirty dollars were demanded.

The Selma, Alabama, Dispatch says: The Georgia militia have been turned over to the Confederate service.

The Savannah Republican of November 30th says: A guard was busy in the streets picking up stragglers. All abled bodied persons were taken and converted into soldiers.

Nashville, Dec. 6.—Little of interest transpired to-day. A flag of truce came in during the day bearing a letter from Hood requesting an exchange of prisoners. Those captured by us had been sent North, and the request could not be granted. A body of rebels attacked the block houses number six and seven, near Murfreesboro yesterday. The garrisons fought gallantly until reinforcements arrived from Murfreesboro, when the rebels were driven off in confusion, losing six pieces of artillery and a number of prisoners.

Washington, 6th.—Everything is quiet in front to-day. Hood's headquarters are said to be at Brentwood, six miles from the city, on the pike.—The rebels are entrenching themselves, and have taken possession of a hill near Hyde Ferry, and are planting batteries. There was cannonading at 4 P. M., our guns being engaged in shelling the rebels to prevent them from planting batteries.

Louisville, 6th.—A Nashville special dispatch says, the rebels lost ten General officers in the battle of Franklin, among which were Generals Gist and Gowan. Cheatham escaped by the fleetness of his horse.

The steamers Prima Donna, Prairie State, and Margaret, captured yesterday in the Cumberland, were recaptured to-day by the gunboat Carondalet.

New York, 7th.—The Commercial's special dispatch says, a caucus of Union Senators will decide to-morrow whether Hale or Grimes shall be chairman of the Naval Committee. Chase will take his seat on the bench of the Supreme Court to-morrow.

New York, Dec. 7.—The prisoners captured on the steamer San Salvador sailed on board the war steamer [illegible]. Recent Brazil papers contain copies of an order issued by that Government that all ports in the country be shut against the Wachusett, for violating the neutrality laws.

Philadelphia, Dec. 7.—At a large meeting of the merchants of this city to-day, resolutions were adopted presenting the name of John W. Forney as the candidate of Pennsylvania for a position in the Cabinet, in the event of a reconstruction. Delegates from Pennsylvania have gone to Washington to urge the appointment of Forney as Secretary of the Interior, in the event of Judge Usher going upon the bench, or as Secretary of the Navy, in case Welles should accept the Embassy to France.

Washington, 7th.—The Union Senators held a caucus this evening to arrange the Standing Committees. These will remain nearly as they were during the last session of the Senate. Senator Sherman will be chairman of the Committee on Finance, with a view to harmony between the Naval Committee and the Navy Department.

New York, 7th.—The Times' special dispatch says, Gen. Steele has been relieved of his command. Senator Grimes has been put at the head of the Senate Naval committee. Senator Sherman at the head of the Finance committee.

A dispatch from the army of the Potomac, Dec. 5th, says: Picket firing is kept up with daily casualties. Stringent orders have been issued against holding intercourse with the enemy or exchanging papers.

The steamship Fulton, specially detailed, will leave to-morrow with a heavy mail for Sherman's army. She goes under sealed orders, as the exact point of Sherman's arrival on the coast is not yet divulged.

The Herald says: Information was lately received that Dr. Gwin obtained from Maximilian, through the influence of Emperor Napoleon, a commission as Governor-General of Sonora, with authority to induce emigrants to settle in that country. The Herald thinks this a preliminary step for establishing a French colony on the Pacific coast.

Chicago, Dec. 8.—In connection with the subject of increased taxes, and the necessity of providing additional revenue from ordinary sources, the Secretary of the Treasury, in his report, calls attention to our public domain, especially to that portion of it abounding in precious and other metals, which by the policy of the Government have been reserved to the nation. He hopes Congress may be able to devise some mode by which these lands may be made available to an extent in some measure proportionate to what they produce every year.

New York, Dec. 8.—The Herald's special dispatch says: In addition to the admissions of the Richmond papers of the 5th, that General Sherman's main army reached Millen, the authorities have information of unquestionable reliability, that Sherman's main body has already passed Millen without a battle, and without the expenditure of any ammunition, except what was used in two or three skirmishes of detachments already reported as having passed Millen. There is no opportunity for a rebel force to intercept his march to the coast where supplies for his army will arrive simultaneously with it. The complete success of Sherman's great enterprise is now beyond all doubt, and it has been demonstrated that beyond a doubt the remains of the army of rebels is comprised in the armies of Hood and Lee, both of which will soon be [illegible].

The Richmond Whig, of December 5th, say that Sherman's army passed Millen without entering the town.

The column which had been lingering for some time in the vicinity of Macon, has left the country and gone off. We are unable to tell where the main body is, but presume it is the column which is said to have passed Millen. Neither can it say where the main body is going, but it is believed that Sherman is marching in all haste to Brunswick on the coast, and may reach there with some of his army; but if he reaches Brunswick, he will have to fight one or two general actions. At any rate the campaign is drawing to a close, and the end will be Sherman's reaching the coast or his defeat, perhaps surrender at some point near there.

The Richmond Dispatch, of Dec. 5th, says: It is not known where Sherman is. It is not clear that he has yet reached Millen, though the fact is assumed. At 4 P. M. last Friday the telegraph operator at Millen announced that Sherman was within five miles of that place. Nothing has been heard from there since. Hood and Beauregard within twenty miles of Millen for a week.

The Savannah Republican, of the 1st, says the whereabouts of Sherman's main body has been satisfactorily ascertained, and his movements indicated anything but decision of purpose as to his destination. The signs are that many people who have been alarmed at the idea of his taking them in on his line of march will be agreeably disappointed.

The Augusta Chronicle, of November 30th, says: It must be confessed that for the past week Sherman has successfully acted the part of the "artful dodger," eluding all calculations and exciting general apprehension by his eccentric movements. Reports show that he is moving to the Savannah river. He may turn upon Augusta and seek to force his way through South Carolina, or he may bear for Savannah or Brunswick.

The Chronicle of Dec. 1st, says: It is reported that a party of Sherman's scouts visited Demeras' Ferry, on the Savannah river, on Sunday, remained for some time taking observations. It is likely Sherman will endeavor to cross the Savannah river at that point.

Savannah News of Nov. 29th, says Sherman appears to be making no progress. He is no nearer the coast than several days ago. He appears to be hesitating and halting as though caught in a tight box. Don't know how to get out—afraid to go forward, yet cannot go back. His men are tired and hungry, and our forces are rapidly closing in around him, all these things excite the liveliest hopes of his utter destruction.

The Augusta Constitutionalist, of Nov. 30th, says: —It is generally conceded Sherman is avoiding both Augusta and Macon, and thus going on his winding way to Savannah, Brunswick or Port Royal.

The Augusta Chronicle, of Dec. 1st, says:

Wheeler was still fighting on Wednesday with results not known. When Wheeler struck Kilpatrick's raiders at Big Creek, they killed over 200 horses to prevent their from falling into Wheeler's hands.

The Richmond Dispatch, of the 5th, says that Dick Taylor has been put in command of the rebel cavalry operating against Sherman.

The Augusta Chronicle, of November 30th, says it is rumored that Wheeler, in a fight at Waynesboro, captured five hundred prisoners.

The Constitutionalist, however, says the Yankee cavalry, with whom Wheeler fought, numbered only 150.

The Richmond Whig says the rebels of Griswoldville, Ga., captured the breastworks from the Yankees.

The Macon Telegraph says that they charged through the open field within 200 of our works, and then withdrew. Hardee, under date of Grahamville, S. C., Dec. 4, claims he has repulsed Foster, on the railroad at that point, and also a force of marines under Admiral Dahlgren at Coosawhatchie.

The Richmond Dispatch says it is now believed Sherman's object is to reach Darien: that he has massed his forces to march there. This is near the mouth of the Altamaha, 50 miles south of Savannah.

The Richmond Whig says the Yankees appropriated over 200 horses and mules in Glasgow and Warren counties, Ga.

San Francisco, Dec. 11, 12 [illegible] M.—No Eastern dispatches. Legal tenders closed yesterday at 45@47½. Rained all day. Arrived—steamship John L. Stephens, from Manzanillo.

Dalles Items.—A man named Charles Jackson, and his partner Evarts, the latter of whom had $1,000, put up at the Umatilla House. Sunday morning last Jackson, who was registered by the name of Krolick, administered chloroform to Evarts, robbed him of $20, found on his person, and the brass check that he had received for the money deposited in the hotel safe, which he drew and then absconded, though he was followed and arrested by officer Keeler after Evarts awoke. He attempted to shoot the officer who arrested him.

Weather at Eugene.—We learn by the telegraph that they were having a warm, steady rain at Eugene last evening, the continuance of which, the operator predicts, will rapidly raise the river and put a stop to telegraphic communication.

Attention Washington Artillery.—Special Meeting this (Tuesday) evening.

IN UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT of Oregon—before Deady Just [illegible] T Fall [illegible] Austin [illegible] Action to recover possession of real property

Plaintiff alleges that he has an [illegible] and is entitled to possession of lots [illegible] 3 in the town of Portland [illegible] the west [illegible] feet is wrongfully withheld from him by defendant. Defendant takes [illegible] plea in answer [illegible] denying the allegation [illegible] complaint [illegible] color of title [illegible] permanent improvements thereon [illegible] avers that the [illegible] the corporate authorities of the town [illegible] by law of Congress [illegible] site law and that he is claimant of the [illegible] by virtue of his [illegible] third fourth, fifth [illegible] ally differ [illegible] title by which [illegible] and the circumstances [illegible] by which he holds the same [illegible] to strike out of the answer of defendant the [illegible] 3d 4th 5th, and 6th plea on the ground that the matter contained therein [illegible] and the Court rules that by the provisions of the civil code in cases of actions of [illegible] the recovery of possession of real property the defendant [illegible] plead in his answer the [illegible] and duration of his estate in the property [illegible] the common law the defendant might plead [illegible] and the defendant might also prove [illegible] in himself or another [illegible] demand of an allegation of the [illegible] to be controverted, and [illegible] upon an estate in himself [illegible] aver the fact and not merely the evidence [illegible] The first plea is equivalent to the [illegible] guilty, at common law and contro[illegible] plaint while the [illegible] are matters of evidence [illegible] turn this [illegible] defendant should simply plead [illegible] estate and the character of [illegible] was fails to show the interest the defendant [illegible] in the premises. The Court [illegible] to strike out [illegible] Court ruled [illegible] plead several defences [illegible] in itself, and neither [illegible] the other. Also [illegible] formation and belief was not [illegible] verification of the pleading [illegible] We have condensed the principal [illegible] case not being able to insert the full ruling of the Court as we would wish to do

COUNTY BOUNTIES.—An order was made in the County Commissioners Court during the session last week, appropriating a bounty of $[illegible] to each person enlisting in the County of Multnomah to fill up the quota of the county under the late proclamation of the Governor [illegible] dollars of the bounty to be paid on date of being mustered into service; twenty dollars at the expiration of eighteen months; and twenty dollars at the termination of the three years' enlistment. Of those enlisting, if wounded or honorably discharged from other cause before the expiration of their term of enlistment, they shall receive the same bounty as those serving the full term. The legal representatives of those who may be killed while in service, shall be entitled to the bounty. A certificate of the Captain or commanding officer of the Company must be presented by the person claiming the payment of bounty at the time when the same shall be payable to the County Clerk of this county, when an order shall be issued upon the County Treasurer for payment of the same.

AN IMPORTANT CHANGE OF DISTRICTS.—The Board of County Commissioners have consolidated into one road district, Numbers 4, 16, 17 and 18, centering in the city of Portland, with one Supervisor instead of five, the district to be designated as No 4. The Supervisors appointed in the several districts of the county are as follows: No 1 Leonard Jewett, No 2 Enoch Meeker, No 3 E B Comstock, No 5 John S White, No [illegible] D Morrill, No 6 R Sunderland, No 8 John Powell, No 9 F C Royal, No 10 M Reynolds, No 11 S Welsh, No 12 L Geiser, No 13 Pl Kelly, No 14 Geo Creswell, No 19 N D Gilliam, No 20 Caleb Ritchy

MISS LISLE LESTER.—We acknowledge a pleasant visit from Miss Lisle Lester, the cheerful Editress of the Pacific Monthly of San Francisco. We are much gratified at such a friendly visit, and endorse fully what is said of her by a cotemporary: "She is young, cheerful, talkative and full of sarcastic pleasantry, a delicate figure and a true patriotic soul." Miss Lester has been giving readings through California and Oregon, taking views of scenery for publication in the [illegible] periodical under her management, and studying the nature and peculiarities of our Coast. She is at present stopping at the Western in this city, but proposes to visit the Dalles and give an entertainment there on Thursday evening.

SOUTH BOISE.—Mr Wilson Waddingham arrived last evening from Rocky Bar, Alturas county, Idaho Territory, bringing with him some 14,000 lbs of quartz from different ledges there, and also some solid results of the value of the ore in the shape of "bricks." One is worth about $1,000, and several others range from $200 to $700 each of which represents a different ledge, showing that the average yield is over $100 per ton without saving the silver which exists largely in the ore. The gold is valued at $12 per ounce, and the whole is a very handsome foreshadowing of a good time coming for South Boise. We also learn of the arrival last evening of a large quantity of silver bullion from Owyhee in care of Mr Moore.

COMPLIMENTARY BENEFIT.—As will be seen by reference to the correspondence published elsewhere, a complimentary benefit has been tendered to Mr Frank Hussey, to take place at Willamette Theatre to-morrow evening, on which occasion the entire strength of his popular troupe will appear. We know of none better entitled to the reward of a grand benefit evening than Mr Hussey. His gentlemanly qualities, and efforts to please his audiences, together with his company, who all feel an interest in his welfare, entitles him to a crowded house, and we wish he may have a bumper.

COLD WEATHER AND SNOW.—Since our last [illegible] which was at [illegible] Saturday morning, we have had snow and ice three days' cold weather, some skating for the boys, etc. But yesterday there was any amount of slush on the crossings, and we venture to say the present fall of snow will do to bet on. We know it won't answer [illegible] over, with fast horse and gay "cutter."

THE WILLAMETTE STEAMERS.—The steamers of the P T Company's line plying between Portland and Oregon city leave here as follows daily: At 7 A M the steamer Senator, Capt [illegible] will leave Couch's wharf touching at Vaughn's wharf for passengers. At [illegible] the steamer [illegible] Capt Baughman will leave Couch's wharf [illegible] ing through to Oregon City.

SOCKS FOR THE SOLDIERS.—The ladies of the Sanitary Aid Society request us to [illegible] all those who have been preparing [illegible] that the articles may be left at Mr [illegible] No 55 Front street.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Several [illegible] under arrest for various offences, were discharged in the Recorder's Court yesterday. [illegible] and John Bell each paid a fine of $5 and costs for violation of City Ordinance No. 10

INCORPORATION.—The necessary articles of incorporation for the [illegible] of Idaho gold and silver mining company were filed with the County Clerk on Saturday last. The incorporators are [illegible] Frazar H B Morse, E J Northrup, A H F[illegible] and C S Silver SANITARY.—The monthly meeting of the [illegible] Sanitary Aid Society will be held [illegible] at 2 o'clock P M. at the [illegible] A full attendance is requested. Mrs [illegible] son, President.

DONATION VISIT.—The friends of Rev S C [illegible] in this city will give a donation visit at his residence this evening. We are requested to urge upon all who desire to [illegible] in his efforts, to be present this evening.

Death of Maj. Gen. David B. Birney

Major General David B. Birney, the heroic commander of the Tenth Army Corps, died at his residence in Philadelphia on the 18th of October. The event was unexpected. It was known that he had been sick of malarious fever, but no one supposed he was dangerously ill. David B. Birney was born in Alabama; he was the son of the late Judge James G. Birney of Alabama, who manumitted his slaves about thirty years ago, and removed to Cincinnati, Ohio, and afterward to Saginaw, Mich., living in New Jersey several years ago. After arriving at [illegible] young Birney made his residence at Philadelphia and engaged in active business. When the rebellion broke out he volunteered for three months service under the first call of the President, and was made Lieutenant Colonel of the Twenty third Pennsylvania volunteers. At the expiration of this term he returned home, recruited the regiment for three years, and became its commander. In August 1861 he was promoted for gallant services in the field to be Brigadier General of volunteers, and filled the place with so much credit and efficiency that he was appointed Major General on the 23d of May 1863. He was now commander of the Second Army Corps and with [illegible] distinction.

ORDER ON THE DEATH OF GENERAL BIRNEY.

HEADQ'RS DEPARTMENT VIRGINIA AND NORTH CAROLINA,
ARMY OF THE JAMES, IN THE FIELD,
FRIDAY, Oct. 21, 1864.

General Order No. 135.

Soldiers of the Army of the James: With deep grief from the heart, the word must be said: Major General David B. Birney is dead. But yesterday he was with us leading you to victory. If choice of the manner of death had been his it would have been to have died on the field of battle as your cheers rang in his ear. But the All Wise determined all things well. General Birney died in his home at Philadelphia on Tuesday last, of diseases contracted on the field in the line of his duty.

Surrounded by all that makes life desirable, a happy home, endeared family relations, leaving affluence and ease, as a volunteer at the call of his country, he came into the service in April, 1861. Almost every battle field whereon the Army of the Potomac has fought has witnessed his valor. Rising rapidly in his profession, no more deserved appointment has been made by the President than Gen. Birney's assignment to the command of the Tenth Army Corps. The respect and love of the soldiers of his own corps has been shown by the manner they followed him. The patriot, the hero, the soldier, by no death has the country sustained a greater loss. Although not bred to arms he has shown every soldierly quality, and illustrated that it was the profession of his love and choice.

It is not the purpose of this order, nor will the woe of the heart of the officer giving it, now permit him to write Gen. Birney's eulogy. Yet even amid the din of arms, and upon the eve of battle, it is fit that we, his comrades, should pause a moment to draw from the example of his life the lesson it teaches. To him the word "Duty," with all its obligations and incentives, was the spur of action. He had no enemies save the enemies of his country. A friend, a brother to us all, it remains to us to see to it, by treading in the path of duty as he has done, that the great object for which he has struggled with us and laid down his life shall not fail, and his death be profitless.

Soldiers of the Tenth Army Corps! your particular grief at the loss of your brave commander, has the sympathy of every soldier in the army. It will be yours to show your respect to his memory by serving your country in the future as with you Birney has served it in the past.

By command of Maj. Gen. Butler.

ED. W. SMITH,
Assistant Adjutant General.

Public Meeting

At a called meeting of the citizens of Washington county, Oregon, held at the court house, in Hillsboro, on Thursday, the 1st day of December, 1864, for the purpose of adopting a plan for the raising of a county bounty fund for volunteers in the First Regiment of Oregon Infantry, on motion, Col. T. R. Cornelius was called to the Chair and W. D. Hare chosen Secretary.

The following caption for a subscription paper was adopted:

"We, the undersigned, hereby bind ourselves to pay to Thomas D. Humphreys, at Hillsboro, or to the person presenting this subscription paper, the sum attached to our names in the kind of currency set opposite our several names, to be divided among the persons volunteering in the First Regiment of Infantry, Oregon Volunteers (and credited to said county) in proportion to the length of time for which they volunteer, to be paid to the said volunteers after same is collected, and they—said volunteers—are mustered into service. And we further agree that we will pay our several subscriptions as aforesaid on or before the first day of January, A. D. 1865."

On motion,

Resolved, That the County Clerk of the county be requested to furnish a subscription list to one of the Judges of Election in each precinct in this county, and that said Judge of Election be and is hereby requested to call a meeting in his precinct, and that said meeting be requested to take steps to procure the circulation of the same.

Resolved, That the precinct meetings requested to be called in aforesaid resolution, be requested to solicit each person in said precinct to subscribe to said bounty fund, and that the names of those refusing to sign, as well as the kind of money—coin or currency—in what those subscribing agree to pay their subscriptions may be entered on said subscription list, and that the Clerk of this county and the secretary of this meeting be requested to furnish the judges of election as aforesaid a copy of the proceedings of this meeting.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the Chairman and Secretary and forwarded to the publisher of the WEEKLY OREGONIAN, with a request that the same be published. On motion adjourned.

T. R. CORNELIUS, Chairman.

W. D. HARE, Secretary.

CAPTURE OF NANKIN.—FATE OF A "BROTHER OF GOD."—I have been examining the breach made by the Imperial soldiers. There were about 150,000 of them under the immediate command, so it is said, of the renowned Tseng Kwo Fan. The wall, where the breach was successful, is 60 feet high and 27 thick. This wall was solid brick and stone. The Taepings had become so accustomed to the play warfare of their opponents for so many years, that they gave no credit to the reports brought to them by deserters from the Imperial ranks, but many of the officers of this force have infused into their sluggish veins English tactics while serving in Maj. Gordon's "Anglo Chinese Contingent." So one fine morning last month the breach was finally perfected and the braves "sailed in." Unfortunately for the fellows, however, the Tieng Wang, the "Brother of God," went up to Heaven in some mysterious way, so they could not catch him, but the lesser "Brother of God," Ching Wang, and a small luminary, Hung Jen [illegible], were ignominiously taken while in the guise of coolies begging rice, and the Pekin Gazette of August 16th, now before me, says that the two above-mentioned "are not to be conducted to Pekin, but their sentence of [illegible] is carried out at Nanking and their heads be sent round the districts formerly in possession of the rebels." This "cutting to pieces" consists in cutting a human body to small bits by a slow and horrid method, and well may Englishmen blush when they consider how her Majesty's officers have been loaned for such a base purpose.

The great Rebellion originated in a noble protest against men wearing their hair like [illegible], and although put down in one province it will surely spring up in another; but so wedded are the Chinese to everything old and so criminal is everything new that it can hardly be believed that this century will free 180,000,000 of souls from the depths of corruption and oppression in which the land is sunk.

GENERAL GRANT'S FAMILY.—The family of General Grant, you will remember, some time since took up their residence in Burlington. They are still there, occupying a trim little cottage on a quiet street running from the heart of the town down the banks of the Delaware. The place is by no means pretentious or aristocratic, and has nothing at all to distinguish it from its neighbors, having perhaps been selected for that very reason by the wife of our greatest General, who is equally as plain and practical minded as himself. At almost any hour of the day, passing the cottage you will see a stout, rosy faced girl, probably eight or nine years of age, trundling her hoop on the sidewalk, or playing in the yard, and if you have seen the Lieutenant General, or any of the better pictures of him, you will not need to be told that this robust, laughing girl is his child—Nellie Grant.

SPEECH OF GEN. WRIGHT.—We publish extracts from the speech delivered at Sacramento, Nov. 1st. Although the election is over the views of General Wright will be received with general interest.

Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen: In the present unhappy condition of our country, every minor consideration must yield to the public good. In the gigantic struggle in which we are now engaged to test the [illegible] of the permanency of our Government and institutions, it must be borne in mind that the result will inevitably settle the question for all time to come as to the stability of a republican form of government, not only in the United States, but throughout the whole world. If our system of government prove a failure, then there is no hope for any nation [illegible] in the cause of free institutions, and the recollection of the heroic deeds of the patriots and sages, the brilliant history of our country both in peace and in war, the happiness and prosperity we have enjoyed for nearly a century, must all be buried in the abyss of the past. [illegible] and commend these views to the careful attention of the friends of freedom.

We are beset by traitors without and traitors within, acting in concert for the destruction of the Union, and whilst our armies are winning glorious victories over the former, we will crush the latter at the polls on the 8th of this month. But, gentlemen, after winning a victory at the polls, which will be of easy accomplishment, our duty as American citizens does not cease there; we must be prepared with arms in our hands to crush the rebellious traitor sympathizers who may attempt to defeat the will of the majority. That such is the programme of the opposition there is not a shadow of doubt. Abandoning all hopes of succeeding at the polls, they have at this very moment their Catalines in every State of the Union for the purpose of inaugurating civil war, carnage and bloodshed. The designs of the rebel sympathizers, in the event of a defeat at the ballot box, have been vaguely hinted at for several months, but the letter from New York, under date of the 14th of September, reveals the astounding fact that the conspirators have fully matured their plans. When we bear in mind that this letter was written by a delegate from this State to the Chicago Convention, it has a peculiar significance and must be regarded as a reflex of the opinions and designs of that body.

It is mortifying to us as Americans to find that we have men in our midst enjoying all the benefits of the noblest and best government the world ever saw consorting with traitors for its destruction; but, gentlemen, we are dealing with the stern logic of facts; and it is our imperative duty as American citizens, who have sworn to uphold the institutions of our country and maintain the integrity of the Union, to be prepared at a moment to devote ourselves to death, if necessary, for the welfare of the State. If we give credit to the statements of the New York letter above referred to, we must look upon the Chicago Convention as composed of men conspiring to defeat the will of the people, and who, to accomplish their hellish purpose and to overthrow the Constitution and Government, are determined to inaugurate a "war for the succession," and drench this fair land of ours with human gore, with the rebels for their allies. I do not believe that the great mass of the Democratic party are aware to what depths of infamous treachery their leaders are conducting them; and as an American citizen, as a General in the army of the Republic, whose whole life has been devoted to its service, I would appeal to them, as they love and cherish our free institutions and the memories of our ancestors who bequeathed to us this glorious heritage, to sever their connection with a party whose only aim is the disseverance of the Union, anarchy and bloodshed.

We are waging the war for the restoration of the Union. We are using every means known to civilized warfare to accomplish this end. Our enemies haughtily reject and hurl back on us every proposition for peace based on their return to the Union. They can have none other. The rightful authority of the Government must be maintained throughout the length and breadth of our land.

For nearly four years our noble hearted President has guided the helm of State with prudence, skill and foresight. With an eye single for the good of the country, he has risen majestically above party considerations, and used the mighty powers entrusted to him for the sole purpose of securing to us and to our descendants a country united, free and happy. I say, then, let the humane and noble-hearted man who has consecrated his life to our service, through whose wisdom we have been carried triumphantly thus far on the road to victory when the National life was in peril, who is beloved by the army and the people, and whose great soul overflows with patriotic devotion to our cause, receive the sincere, heartfelt thankfulness and gratitude of a free people. Let the wires flash the joyful intelligence across the continent to the Atlantic shores that California, the Queen of the Pacific, has cast her vote for Abraham Lincoln.

Well, gentlemen, the time for making long speeches has passed away. Action, action, is the word now. Rally at the polls next Tuesday. Let your watchword be, "The Union forever, and no compromise with rebels with arms in their hands," and then you may look forward with confidence to an early settlement of all our difficulties, with the Union restored and peace once more throughout the land.

But, gentlemen, supposing the great object of this war, Union and peace, accomplished, we are not yet quite prepared to stack our arms and disband our armies. I look beyond our borders and behold a sister republic writhing under the despotic rule of a foreign prince, a mere puppet in the hands of his imperial master of France. We must reach forth a helping hand, and gently coerce those foreign freebooters to relinquish their hold on beautiful Mexico, and depart from her shores never to return.

Yet one more great crowning act and our work is ended.

From every mountain peak and in every valley throughout the length and breadth of this great republic let it be proclaimed, trumpet-tongued and thunder-toned, that will span the broad Atlantic and ring in the ears of all Europe, that it is the will of the American people that the great Monroe doctrine must and shall be maintained on this continent.

Finally, I would say to all the people of California, in the words of the Farewell Address of the illustrious sage Washington, the founder of our republic, "the very idea of the power and the right of the people to establish government presupposes the duty of every individual to obey the established government."

"All obstructions to the execution of the laws, all combinations and associations under whatever plausible character, with the real design to direct, control, counteract or awe the regular deliberations and action of the constituted authorities, are destructive of this fundamental principle and of fatal tendency.

They serve to organize faction, to give it an artificial and extraordinary force, to put in the place of the delegated will of the Nation the will of party, often a small but artful and enterprising minority of the community."

With what prophetic vision that great and good man foresaw the dangers which now surround us. The whole address is commended to the attentive perusal of every man or woman in the land, and let its warnings and teachings be impressed upon the infant hearts of your children when lisping their daily prayers at their mothers' footstools.

A Greenback Case!

HAVING BEEN COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF Legal Tender Notes at par since the 17th day of December 1862, for the rent of my building, the Brick Store corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large that leased the building of me on the 17th day of February 1862, for a term of years, at which time the only currency in vogue was coin, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly, under protest, for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants. G. W. VAUGHN.

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction, even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

LE DOYEN'S

SARSAPARILLA, YELLOW DOCK

—AND—

IODINE ALTERATIVE

FOR THE CONSTITUTION.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples, sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, [illegible] Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal [illegible] Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

Blood and Liver.

This valuable Medicine is now available to [illegible] for the cure of

SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, [illegible] HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES, NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, &c.

AS A TONIC,

its operations are evinced by strengthening the [illegible] organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of [illegible] and Emaciation and Debility, an increase [illegible] the body is the result of the employment of [illegible]. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color, [illegible] relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping over you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right [illegible]. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered system—purify the blood, and let the [illegible] on unobstructed in health again.

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

it has no equal, being chemically combined with Iodine, it possesses in a high degree the power of dissolving stone in the Bladder and urators of the kidneys, [illegible] gravel formation and enlargement of the prostate, [illegible] irritation of the neck of the bladder, dropsy, etc.

Sole Agency of Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla for [illegible] Coast.

MILLINER AND DRESS MAKER,

CORNER OF FIRST AND SALMON STS.,
PORTLAND, OREGON.

JUST RECEIVED NEW AND ELEGANT PATTERNS of all the Latest and Most Reliable Paris and New York FASHIONS, for Ladies and Children's Dress.

Having been in the Business for years, I am prepared, I think, to render more satisfaction in the making and cutting of Bonnets, Cloaks, Dresses, Ladies' and Children's Clothing, etc. Particular attention paid to Bleaching Bonnets, Hats, etc., etc.

Having been duly instituted a branch of Mme. Demorest's Magasin des Modes in Portland, and having arranged for a constant and full supply of Patterns, direct from this great Emporium of Fashion, possess great advantages to offer superior inducements to patrons.

Just received a supply of Dress Elevators, (just the thing for Oregon), Shields, etc., etc., which ladies will please call and examine.

Dress makers will be supplied with patterns, trimmed or plain. Demorest's Illustrated Monthly and Mme. Demorest's Mirror of Fashions combined on sale. Cash orders promptly filled.

Thankful for former liberal patronage, I hope to merit a continuance of the same by my work. Please give me a call. Mrs. S. S. KLINE.
